NATIONAL GRANDPARENTS DAY

The impetus for a National Grandparents' Day originated with Marion McQuade, a housewife in Fayette County, West Virginia. The primary motivation was to champion the cause of lonely elderly in nursing homes. She also hoped to persuade grandchildren to tap the wisdom and heritage their grandparents could provide. President Jimmy Carter, in 1978 proclaimed that National Grandparents Day would be celebrated every year on the first Sunday after Labor Day. The flower of U.S. National Grandparents Day is the Forget-Me-Not.
